

SOMETHING BOULDER

One hundred tons of boulders were hauled in to build this show-stopping pool in The Estancias at Rancho La Quinta. Coachella-based Teserra won an Association of Pool and Spa Professionals gold award for this dramatic poolscape (the fourth it created for the homeowners) that incorporates three water features, a grotto, stream, bridge, and fire pit with a swim-up/walk-down option. More than 20 dimmable lights shine on the bends of the stream, fountains, and stacked-stone water features, while several pumps control their speed and flow.
